

About us

Coasthopper is brought to you by award-winning bus company Norfolk Green and Norfolk County Council. In 2010 alone, we carried over half a million passengers! All of our buses are step-free and fitted with ultra-low emission engines.

Connections

Connections between Coasthopper buses in Hunstanton, Wells and Cromer are guaranteed and you'll normally not have to change buses. Train connections are correct at time of printing. To check latest train times call National Rail Enquiries on 08457 484950 or visit www.nationalrail.co.uk

Fares and Rover tickets

1, 3 and 7 Day Coasthopper Rovers give you the freedom of the coast and come in adult, 16-19, under 16 or family group versions. They are also valid and issued on our 10 and 11 buses between Hunstanton and King's Lynn. You can also get a Bittern Rover, valid on Bittern Line trains to Norwich and on Coasthopper between Sheringham and Hunstanton. You can buy through rail/bus tickets to Hunstanton, Burnham Market and Wells when you travel via King's Lynn. Check all of our fares at www.coasthopper.co.uk

Groups

If you're travelling in a group, or combining the bus with an organised walk, please give us at least 7 days notice of where and when you intend to travel, so you don't get split up or left behind if the bus is too busy.

Dogs and bikes

Well-behaved dogs are always welcome and travel free. Sorry, but we can't carry any sort of bike on our buses.

Over-60s bus passes

English National Bus Passes can be used on Mondays to Fridays after 0930, and any time on public holidays and weekends. Norfolk residents can use theirs from 0830 on Coasthopper between Hunstanton and Cromer.

Christmas and New Year

Special times apply over the Christmas and New Year period. Please check with us nearer the time.
